

I am sickened at Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a blatant abuse of the power which has been handed to media conglomerates through loosening of the rules on media ownership. This is a perfect example of why we need to strengthen the rules limiting media ownership instead of weakening them.

The airwaves belong to the public, not to a few huge corporations. Sinclair Broadcasting is obviously serving its own interests, not those of the public. It is poisoning both our airwaves and our election. This behavior should not be tolerated or allowed. In my opinion, Sinclair deserves to lose its license. I urge and expect the Commission to take firm action on this issue.
